

English

- Spelling rules and conventions are taught each week, in the form of an investigation and practice words.
- Grammar has a focus on question marks, speech marks, exclamation marks and writing in paragraphs.
- Bringing the past to life – reconstructing the last hours of Lindow man and a letter home from a soldier on Hadrian's wall.
- Writing Celtic prayers
- Rhyming poetry – Invasion poems “In AD43.....
- Research – Celtic way of life.
- Presenting information for an audience – Butser Farm Brochures and Hadrians wall leaflets.
- Speaking and listening; Lindow Man drama and group discussions.
- Reading - individually and group or shared reading sessions.
- Handwriting - topic-related pieces and writing patterns

ICT

- Using the internet BBC, Google and living library as research tools.
- Word processing – prayers
- Data handling – making graphs and charts
- Power point presentations.
- Publisher - bookmarks

Science

- Investigation skills - Round house and Warrior Investigation

Maths

- Place value,
- Addition and subtraction
- Multiplication and division
- Fractions, percentages and decimals.
- Problem solving and investigations
- Length
- Symmetry
- Data handling
- 2D and 3D shapes
- Roman numerals

Invaders! AutumnTerm 2011

Geography

- Where should we settle? – the features needed for a successful settlement.
- Geography of the British isles – locations of key places
- Key features of a map (OS)
- Sketch maps and diagrams.

Music/ R.E.

- Boudicca Bop
- Roman and Celtic beliefs
- The Spread of Christianity

Art

- Celtic crosses
- Broches and belts
- Celtic patterns
- Roman Emperor statues
- Celtic clothes
- Abstract Celtic Art
- Harvest pictures - sketching

DT

- Cooking oat cakes
- Celtic round houses

History

- General history timeline
- Study of Celtic way of life
- Reasons for the Roman invasion
- Studying sources – who can we trust?
- Separating fact from opinion.
- Bringing the past alive through literacy.
- Attack and defence, the Roman and Celtic armies and the Celtic defences.
- Boudicca's revolt.
- What changed after the Roman invasion – how did life change?

Visits and special days

John Eagle visit, Buster Farm trip, Celtic day